Introducing Mark Zinder

Mark Zinder has been speaking professionally since 1995 when he was selected to be National Spokesman for Sir John Templeton, arguably one of the greatest money managers of the 20th century. Over the years, Mark would sit down with Mr. Templeton, learn from him, and then travel the world to speak on his behalf.

In 2004, Mark left the Franklin Templeton organization and ventured out on his own. Today Mark brings us the wit and wisdom of over 30 years of accumulated knowledge.

The presentation you are about to hear is filled with stats and facts and is delivered, I have been told, in a rapid-fire, captivating way.

Please help me welcome... Mark Zinder.
